GENERAL GOALS OF PROGRAMS

WE WORK TO ADDRESS

EACH CHILD'S ABILITY TO:

- Transition in and out of activities
- Explore various textures with hands
- Sit and attend to circle time activities
- Sequence and perform multi-step activities
- Demonstrate age-appropriate sports skills (kicking, throwing, catching)
- Engage in cooperative and turn-taking activities with peers
- Demonstrate age-appropriate coloring and cutting skills
- Sequence and complete art projects
- Identify "Zone" and activities to help stay in the "Green Zone"
- Generate ideas for activities and play safely with peers during unstructured play

ABOUT US

Leaps and Bounds™ Occupational Therapy Summer Camp has been providing services in the DC Metro area for over 15 years. We utilize an individualized approach to play via a small child to adult ratio, which supports a unique, motivating, and graded developmental experience. Two other characteristics that set us aside from other programs include both inside/outside spaces for motor activities (i.e., bike riding and sports) as well as a highly successful swimming program.
